READERS' CHOICE: HOME & DESIGN

With an active community to rival anywhere in the world, Atlanta boasts a roster of top talents. Here's your list of who hits home.

THE HIGH RHOAD
Designing doyenne Traci Rhoads leads the pack with her eye for detail.

BEST SHOWROOM Inspired by the classic charm of the South, the eponymous partners Ainsworth-Noah decided to settle their roots down in Atlanta; 40 years later, their showroom is the largest in the Southeast, and they continue to supply designers with premier furniture, fabric and lighting. 351 Peachtree Hills Ave. NE, 404.231.8787, ainsworth-noah.com ¶ BEST HOME STORE Our love for Period has been contagious; this neighborhood spot has become a haven for gift shoppers, decorators and the unsuspecting passers-by, who come out with that perfect item for which they didn't realize they had been looking. 3193 Roswell Road, 404.261.7028, simplyperiod.com ¶ BEST FURNITURE STORE Founded by husband-and-wife team Stu and Bobbie Mathews more than 30 years ago, Mathews Furniture store combines the old with the new as it strikes the perfect balance between 18th century pieces and modern contemporary work by the industry's best brands. 1240 W. Paces Ferry Road NW, 404.237.8271, mathewsfurniture.com ¶ BEST ARCHITECT With a wide range of clients, including restaurants like 4th & Swift and Holman and Finch, a13 architecture has worked to perfect the art of modern-meets-rustic design. 916 Joseph E. Lowery Blvd. NW, 404.223.3304, a13online.com ¶ BEST INTERIOR DESIGNER As the principal at one of the country's most successful and versatile full-service design firms, award-winning interior designer Traci Rhoads is sought after for her timeless and classic style that is mixed with the perfect dash of a modern sensibility. 640 Glen Iris Drive, 404.971.4423, trinteriors.net

Off the Wall

Close your eyes and imagine that an entire wall of your living room is a window onto a rainy city street scene or a field of English roses. Now open your eyes to the reality of NewWall Digital. Four collections (Glance, Nomad, Pandora and Wonder) give discerning designers and DIYers an array of settings to match their wildest dreams. Customizable down to the quarter inch, they're printed on textured surfaces, such as Velcro, metallic, flocked and deep embossed, with shiny or velvety finishes. Price upon request, Donghia, 351 Peachtree Hills Ave. NE, Suite 317, donghia.com

Pirch-Perfect

At recently opened Lenox Marketplace appliance emporium PIRCH, you can actually find everything—and the kitchen sink. Ringing in at 27,000 square feet, the San Diego-based company's third-largest U.S. showroom contains the crème de la crème of luxury kitchen, bath, laundry and outdoor living brands from around the world. All the usual suspects are in tow: Miele, Gaggenau, Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances; SieMatic cabinetry; Cosentino countertops; and Kohler plumbing fixtures, while Atlanta shoppers will discover an array of less-common luxuries, as well—think royalty-worthy ranges from Molteni and La Cornue. And as our city's sole source of Gessi, PIRCH boasts a sparkling in-store boutique of the Italian faucets and fittings that, like everything else on the floor, customers can test-drive before they buy. Atlantans will also adore the store's cooking demos, complimentary beverages from the on-site Bliss Café, and offerings from soup to nuts. All purchases, delivery, installation, service and repairs are provided completely in-house. 3535 Peachtree Road NE, 404.341.7555, pirch.com
